“ *Della and the rest of the family,
I am so very sorry for your loss. John really did mean the world to me. He was such a wonderful man and della he loved you so much. I always looked up to him and I'm really glad I got to see him the last time I came through Huntsville. He was talking to me about the grandkids and how everyone was doing well. I wish I could have been there but we are in Odessa now and there wasn't enough time to come down. Della I can't imagine what you are going through, but I'm praying for you and you are in my thoughts
Love,
Andrea*

“ Della,

My heart goes out to you, Ronnie, and the rest of his Family and Friends. I have no tears, just the incredible warmth of his incredible kindness, laughter and love. From being my Husbands Best Man at our Wedding to being an Uncle figure for my son, he touched our lives deeply...from the Ballgames to Birthday Parties...Forrest loved him greatly also. When I think of John, I can only smile and hope one day I can touch lives the way John did.

I pray GOD will wrap all of you in his arms, filling you with Courage, Strength, Peace, Comfort and so much Love for the days ahead.

With deepest sympathy, hugs & love.

“ To the family of John:

I met John when I was but 15. He was the sweetest most compassionate man. I knew this and I was only a teenager. That smile and his eyes seemed to just twinkle.

I know God has received him with open arms because he was so kind.

“ *Dearest Della and Family,
We wish to extend our most sincere sympathy. Growing up and being in the presence of my cousins was a wonderful time. Especially, Johnny for he had a way of making the joys of life contagious. He always had that smile where he was up to something. Della, le enviamos nuestro amor para darle fuerza con su triteza.

“ My mother, Ruby, and I were so saddened to hear of Johnny's passing. Our family went to the same school/church for many years here in Houston, and our ranch is located in Dodge not far from the store. I will always think of Johnny as that young sweet boy, who became an equally sweet man.

Our prayers are with you all.

“ I liked John Tallent, even though I'm pretty sure it was him, not Ron who fired me from Riverside Grocery back in the 80's when I was a grad student at SHSU. I was a city girl and absolutely hated bagging minnows and tried to do it as quickly as possible, not always bothering to count them. One day John took me out there and questioned if I was actually counting the minnows out. Apparently that day some bags had closer to 5 dozen and others had significantly less than 3 dozen. I lied and said yes I was counting. Then he asked how many minnows were in 3 dozen. Now of course I knew 3 dozen was 36 and I should have just 'fessed up to the lie right then but I didn't. I told him I didn't know, and his look was incredulous. He let me go back to work, then fired me right after the shift was over. He was very kind about it, but said a cashier needed to know basic math. I was so embarrassed that I just stood there mutely letting him think I was that stupid, plus I knew I had brought it on myself. However, the incident taught me a couple of valuable life lessons: 1. Don't lie to your boss and 2. Better to be thought lazy than stupid, everytime.

However, I always regretted that he did not know the truth, especially every time I drove to Dallas and saw a Tallent's Sausage billboard on I-45. But I guess he knows all truths now that he is with his Lord and Savior. He was a good kind man. Peace be with the family in their time of loss.

“ Della, Kristine & Ryan
We are so saddened by Johns passing. It was only a short time ago that he and Della and Bobby and I sat at our kitchen table and talked about old times when we were young, remembered our kids growing up together, told each other new stories of our beloved grand children, and of many plans yet to come in our futures. Not knowing that he would be called Home so soon, John had a plan for the remainder of his life, to live it to the fullest! Travel, spend time with Della, his family and friends and indulge in his grand kids. We all should remember to dream like John did, live in the moment, and carry it forward in his memory.
May the strength and grace of the Lord carry your family through this tremendous loss.

“ I am so sad to hear of John's passing. I remember in grade school he was always in the middle of whatever was going on, and always had a smile for everyone. In high school none of that changed. I will remember him for his smile and friendliness to everyone. May he rest in peace.

My prayers thoughts go out to his family and may you all feel the comforting peace, knowing John's smile will be guiding you from heaven.

“ For the family:

The Last Moment

*Then comes the moment of saying good by.
Now it's the end, you stop asking why.
You search your mind for things never said.
Strength comes from friends and tears that you shed.*

*What now has to be, you know's for the best.
It's hard to let go, but now he can rest.
Hold to the moments that all of you shared.
The Lord now is waiting, with a place He's prepared.*

For Della Rose:

LETTING GO

*Letting go is hard to do, it's hard to understand.
We planned, for eternity, that we'd be hand in hand.
God and time had other plans, they didn't check with me.
I sweep the grass, that hides your stone, beneath the shaded tree.*

*I promised that I wouldn't cry on, days I came to visit.
It's time that I moved on with life.... but..... really is it?
Death's suppose to break the vows , that we spoke years ago.
Would someone tell my mind and heart, 'cause neither of them know.*

*I wish that you were here with me, It's hard to carry on.
Even though, I see your grave, my lips won't say you're gone.
Your pillow keeps me company, through my nightly prayer.
Since you can't be here with me, I'll hold it 'till I'm there.*

*The Bible says when Christians die, they're present with the Lord.
I know that God was standing there to welcome you aboard.
Faith is all I have right now, but faith is all I need.
That, one day, we'll walk hand in hand, just like we both agreed.*

“ My prayers and thoughts are with you all during this time. I grew up with the Tallent's in the Heights and John and his siblings were grade school and high school friends. Mary and I were in the same class. John was a very special person and always treated me with kindness from a very young age. He will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Della and the Tallent Family,
I can't express enough my sorrow of what a loss you and family must be feeling at this time.
With John's passing, I can't help but remember the great times spent with him and his friends and he had many,
he was mischievous in fun, a prankster, full of life and laughter, many don't know or remember, John was voted "most daring" in high school, not afraid to take chances, John was genuine, a good person and a loyal friend who will not be forgotten, God Bless and Love to you and family

“ Dear Tallent Family, I have such great memories of John. I am so sad to hear of his passing. I will always remember his patience, laughter, pink cheeks and sweet smile. Even as I grew up and left the community, I always try to stop in the store and catch up. I will never ever forget him teaching me how to bag minnows and the bag exploding all over me. Minnows flopped everywhere. John could not stop laughing. Good times, cherished memories. He will never be forgotten. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ So sorry to hear about John's passing. Met him when he was a teenager and he and Ron were helping their dad at the store in Riverside. His Kristine and Ryan were pretty close in age to our Robert and John and so, when we would see him at the store, the topic was mostly, "How're the kids doing?" We know you will all miss him terribly, as we will too, and our hearts and prayers go out for you all.
