“ One day, my son, Shauwn called me and said a cousin of mine was looking for me, I thought it was my cousin Paul from Holland whom I have spoken with and met before, well, it wasn't, it was my cousin Joop, aka (Johan). He had been looking for me for a while and I always wondered besides my Father, did anyone else ever left Holland. Joop told me he had a time share in Virginia Beach with his wife for a week and would I mind if he met me, no. So, I contacted my son's, Joop's 2nd cousins and headed for the time share. I shared before meeting Joop, and to let my son's know that he will talk about the family in Holland and the war and who we lost and he did. I learned lot about the Dutch side of my family in Holland, who is who and so on. When I think on my Father and Joop and there stories of Rotterdam and Holland, make you a bit proud in whom you are.

Je bent van ons weggegaan, maar jij zit steeds in ons harten en gedachten, en wij toch verblijven familie.

You have left us, but you are always in our hearts and minds, and we still remain family.

“ It was a guarantee to see a smile on Brother Wolf when I would walk into the Veterans group meeting. I will cherish all the talks and laughs we shared, and I’ll always be grateful that GOD let our paths cross. R.I.P. my Brother.....”
