“ Ms Martinez

I will always remember working with you.. You were one of my first mentors And taught me so much. When I arrived on that unit at the tender age of 23.. You taught me how to be strong and stand up for myself. And there were several times I can recall your kindness and standing up for me... You were one of my work mothers☐ I remember we shared interests in flowers and gardening.. drinking coffee and garage saling... You crossed my mind this morning aa I attended garage sales and I remember, I used to run into you all of the time at sales... And as I was purchasing many different plants.. I remenbered you fondly..

One of my recent memories of you before I retired Was how Each morning , you would check with me to see if I had gotten any coffee... And if not you would go get me a cup☐

I will be forever grateful for knowing you... And today when I am putting plants in my yard... I will plant one in honor of you...Rest easy my friend

I remember Mrs. Martinez so well. I remembered just the other day while I was pouring hot water into a bowl of Oatmeal. I thought of her. She loved Oatmeal and Coffee. I had the privilege of working with her. Some fondness and some not. Overall she made me be still and realize I wasn't the one locked up and the Prison is going to run itself. She will forever be in my heart. My condolences to her family. Mrs. McBride
