“ I would like to convey my deepest sympathy to you in the the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Joesph personally, but I do understand the pain of losing one so close and young. I lost my younger brother in a car fire a couple of years ago and this past summer two family members in seperate traffic accidents just 5 hours apart. We were devastated. We had much comfort from reading little notes like this from family,friends and even strangers who do care.Aslo reading the bible especially in Psalms 34:18 it reassures us that we are never alone, more so at a time like this. and John 11:11,14-44 What a wonderful experience of Jesus resurrecting Lazarus here on eart,before the very eyes of his family and friends. You can only imagine the tears of joy when they hear Jesus say,"Lazaurs,come forth." We too will have a time when we will experinece that same joy. (John 5:25,28)Until that day comes,keep the experiences you all shared close to your hearts and pass them on to those whom you love and his memory will live on in them. Remember also to take care of yourselves,so you can be there for those who love you. Please,accept my sincere sympathy from a stranger who does care.

“ Dear Margaret, Chuck, and Jeff,

I am truly sorry to hear about the passing of Joe. My mom told after Thanksgiving about the accident. I remember the two of us playing as young kids in Bloomington years ago. My prayers are with you all. He will be truly missed.

We are keeping you in our prayers and hope they help ease the pain. As a parent, this has to be the hardest blow that can be delivered. Be strong. I was very sorry to read about your son in the Courier this morning. It does not matter how old our children are when this happens it is a void in our lives and leaves a hole in our hearts. “ Dear Chuck and Maggie:

We were sorry to open the pantagraph this morning and see that your son had passed away in an accident. Though we have not seen you for many many years, we talk about you often and wonder how things are with you and family. When Bobby Hoffman passed away we had a good time, reliving the good old day. Chuck, Maggie and family you have our sympathy and prayers. Cherish the memories!!

Love:
