

Joseph Grant

June 27, 1993 - December 14, 2018

Joseph “Joe” Lamar Grant was born June 27, 1993 in Houston, Texas to Glen and Dana Grant. Joe suddenly and unexpectedly walked into the loving arms of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on December 14, 2018 in Minot, North Dakota at the age of 25. Joe was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Glen Grant, Sr. and maternal grandmother, Marylyn Seidel. Joe is survived by his parents, Glen and Dana Grant of Huntsville, Texas; his brother, Jimmy Grant of Galveston, Texas; paternal grandmother, Jessie Grant; maternal grandfather, Franklin Seidel; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

He attended Huntsville schools and graduated from Huntsville High School in 2012. During his school years, Joe was active in Boy Scout Troop 114. He attained the highest rank in Scouting when he became an Eagle Scout in 2010. His love of scouting was shown as he worked at camps each summer as Quartermaster. He was a member of First United Methodist Church, Huntsville, Texas.

Joe graduated from Texas State Technical College in Waco, Texas in December 2014. He received an Associate of Applied Science degree in Building Construction Technology. While attending TSTC, he developed an interest in carpentry, specializing in custom cabinetry. His passion for woodworking turned his talent into a career.

As an independent craftsman, Joe’s gifts were evident in the many and varied projects into which he accepted. Always eager to learn, Joe was constantly on the lookout for the next opportunity. He described himself as “Not your average Joe.” Joe’s kind heart and loving spirit was shown in the many ways he helped those he could. He had an astonishing ability to reach people in a profound and positive way. Joe will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. He was the kind of young man that anyone would be proud to call son, grandson and friend.

The Great Trumpet Band and friends will be playing Friday evening, December 21, 2018 at The Patio, 1115 University Ave, Huntsville, TX 77340. Proceeds from the event will be donated in memory of Joe.

Visitation will be on Thursday, December 20, 2018 from 5 – 7 pm at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, Huntsville, Texas. Funeral services will be held on Friday, December 21, 2018, 10 am at First United Methodist Church, Huntsville, Texas.

Full obituary may be viewed and memorial condolences made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

“ I never once heard a bad thing said about him. He was a great guy and a great role model to all the younger scouts during his time with Troop 114. Joe was the kind of person who always remembered people he'd met no matter how long it had been since he'd seen them. I will miss catching up with him each time we ran into each other around town. My condolences to the Grant family. He will be missed.

“ Dear Dana and family, my deepest condolences for the loss of your son. I can remember times where you shared stories about the beautiful things that Joe built, it was natural for him to come up with one of a kind items. I know he will be missed by many. May the peace of the Lord surround you and give you strength during this such very difficult time. Thank you again for sharing the many charming stories. He was really one in a million. My love and prayers to your family.

“ There simply aren't words to express my sincerest sympathy. I'm glad to have known Joe through his friendship with Brent. I will always think of his infectious smile, his impish quirk of his brow, and ready laughter. I will forever see him burrowing and digging tunnels, climbing trees, and simply being Joe. He was genuine. May he always live on in our hearts and memories.

“ I'm sure many people are aware of what a wonderful and kind individual he was, it's been a long time since I left Texas, and I was so happy he still remembered me after a long time, even though we stopped talking for a while due to normal life circumstances. My heart aches for all of you, I cannot emphasize enough how truly blessed we all were for having Joe in our lives, in spite of how soon he was taken from us, he will always be remembered and there will always be moments many of us shared with him, no matter how brief they were to be thankful for, he was such a smart, sweet and inspiring young man. May he find peace up in heaven, wherever he is now. I'll miss him dearly, every day of my life.

“ Joe was the kind of kid that grew into the kind of man that anyone would love to have as a son. I have spoken these words when Joe was a kid and I had first met him then again recently as he helped me with a wood project I was doing. He was kind and funny and I always referred to him as "one of my kids" I know he will be missed but also know that he is in GOD's arms. My love to your family.

“ I had Joe in two classes senior year. He was funny and kind and you could tell he was a great friend to those around him. I last saw him two years ago when I worked at Target and he remembered me (when I see an old classmate I'm never really sure if they'll know who I am or not). He said hi and asked how I was doing. It was a short talk but still a nice experience. Joe, you will be missed. God bless

“ Joe you always kept a smile on your face and knew how to make me laugh. I loved seeing you come in the store and was ready to see that smile. Heaven has truly gained an amazing person and angel. When God picked you he knew what he was doing. I'll miss you and continue to rest easy. R.I.P my friend.

“ My heart is heavy hearing of Joes passing. I worked with Joe at Handley Exelon Power Plant in Fort Worth Texas. He was always such a respectful young man. I have children his age & the last day of outage we said our good byes thinking we would see each other on another outage. We planned many times to all get together to go out & eat & etc. But with the hours at the end of the day we never made it happen we were all so tired , I now regret this. I want to say to his parents you raised a respectful young man & he will be missed by all his co-workers & friends. It was a sad day at Handley Power Plant hearing the news.....My thoughts & prayers go out to his family.....God Bless each of you....RIP my friend Joe

“ *Our thoughts and prayers are with you all, Joe was an outstanding young man. I loved watching him grow up at FUMC and watching him in the kitchen with Glen cooking for the church or the spaghetti fundraisers for the scouts. He always gave of his time effortlessly and always with that bright smile! Love and hugs from our family to yours...during this difficult time.

“ Dana, Glen and Jimmy, We are deeply saddened by the loss of Joe, please take comfort knowing he is in heaven for I know he was a christian and a faithful servant of GOD. For all the years I have been teaching at the church, few of them kept in touch with me, but Joe was one I could always count on to say hi when he saw me. Joe is very close and dear to my heart and my GOD give you strength and guidance during this time of need.

“ Dana and Glenn - Joe was such a sweet kid. He had the most contagious smile and always greeted me with kindness and manners. My last meeting with him was at Walmart in town... he was shopping for some rugs for his apartment and he recognized me before I him. He gave me a hug and asked me how I was liked retirement... such a sweet kid. He will be missed dearly yet we will never let him be forgotten!!! My condolences to the entire Grant family.

“ I remember him as a cute little boy the first time I met him with his Mom. Jimmy and Joe, were the cutest little boys ever. What I will remember most about Joe is that through the years as he was growing up, whenever and wherever we would meet, he would always greet me with a big shy smile, and when he got into junior high and was no longer that cute little boy but becoming a handsome young man, a hug always came with that big smile and quiet personality. I really don't know if he was a "hugger" or not but I he always had one for me and I loved him for it.

His death is such a huge loss to all who know him. I have watched his parents raise him from that cute little boy to a handsome young man. Dana & Glenn, you have been really good parents to both of your sons and raised two very fine young men. It is heartbreaking that you now have to say goodbye to Joe and his journey in his earthly world; he is now on his way to God's heavenly kingdom and I believe he will always be watching over his family left behind.

Doug and I will miss him.

May the peace of the Lord surround you and give you strength during this very difficult time.

We love the Grant family.
