

Joseph Staab

January 1, 2010

Joseph Martin Staab was a beloved father, grandfather husband and friend to all who knew him. He left this earth at 12:40 PM on December 29, 2009 at age 53. Joe touched the lives of many people with his delicate smile and laughter that would fill the room. He was the kind of man that could take a rainy day and find a speck of sunshine. He was a fisherman and enjoyed playing pool with his friends. He had an astounding love for his family and enriched the lives of everyone he came in contact with. He is survived by his wife: Diana Myers, his mother: Anne, his children: Desirae, Joseph, Kimberly and Nichole, his granddaughters: Dinah Marie and Jayme Renae and his siblings: Chris, Edward, Robert and Donald. The family would like to give special thanks to Bunny, JJ and Jennifer for the support and care that provided Joseph and family with peace and comfort. A gathering and dedication will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home of Montgomery, Friday, January 1, 2010 at 1 PM. You are invited to leave personal condolences to the family on our website at www.shmfh.com

“ *Joe,
I never had a chance to meet you, but know some about you from your amazing daughter. She is such an amazing person and a wonderful mother. I know you will look down on her and watch over her. How proud you must be to have such an amazing family. They will miss you but will always carry you in their heart and their memories.*

“ My Big Brother Joe, There is so much to say about who you are to me although you are not here on this earth you are with me every day in everything I do. Your influence as a big brother has made me who I am today. Your appreciation for music inspired me to be the musician I am today. Your love of cars (and testing their durability) inspired my interest in restoring and owning some of the coolest cars ever. Especially those B Body Mopars. Although as younger brothers we had our moments I could always count on you to be there to watch over me. There are many memories and moments that I will always cherish I love you Joey and you will continue to be with me everyday in everything I do until we are together again. P.S. Stay away from those clammers.
