“ Our hearts were absolutely broken to hear Josh had passed away. Through elementary and junior high school Josh spent as much time at our home as he did at his own. As our sons and Josh grew up and moved away, contact was less frequent, but we could always expect a strange car to pull into our driveway once a year, and then see Josh hop out and come over to give us a big and spend time visiting with us. He was never turned away from our home.

We will miss you Josh!

“ I may never understand until we talk again but I'll always have the memories of you being the best big brother you could be
