

Joshua Cade Farris

June 2, 2010

Joshua Cade Farris Joshua Cade Farris went to be with the Lord Jesus on May 30, 2010. He was a loving and precious son, loyal brother, devoted uncle and a friend to all in need. Josh was preceded in death by great-grandparents Willie and Claire Cowart and grandfather Fred Fisher. Josh is survived by father James Michael Farris and step-mother Cindy, mother Tania Marie Lingor and step-father Michael, brother James Robert Farris and wife Sarah, brother Derrence Deon Terry and wife Whitney, sisters Karla Smith and husband Claude; Rebekah and Mona Wiggins, nephew Keegan Lee Farris and niece Alyssa Anne Smith. Joshua "Josh" Cade was a young man whose life exemplified the joy of living in Christ. He was an inspiration to hundreds of friends and family. Josh was an extraordinary athlete who loved to compete. At Coldspring-Oakhurst High School Josh competed and excelled at football, baseball, track and field, and rodeo. One of Josh's proudest athletic achievements was when he won the 2004 Region IX finals in the Calf-Roping event. Josh graduated as Valedictorian from Coldspring-Oakhurst High School and enrolled at Sam Houston State University. At SHSU, Josh was a member of the rodeo team for four years and graduated with his BBA in management. Joshua's passion in life was being a cowboy. He loved to have a good horse underneath him with a rope in his hand. The most important thing about Josh was his love for the Lord. Josh was an active member at Family Faith Church for 13 years where he served in many ministries including youth and usher ministries. We have peace knowing that Josh is at the right hand of Jesus waiting for our arrival in Glory. AMEN! Joshua is also survived by grandparents James and Norma Farris, Dr. J. B. Nelson, Margie and Dr. Richard Ressler; aunts and uncles Herb and Marla Atkison, Bobby and Melinda Nelson, John and Maggie Lingor, Jerry Lingor; cousins Elizabeth Ryan and husband Zach and daughter Belle, Mindy Tanner and husband Adam, and Garrett and Grant Nelson. Services for Joshua will be Wednesday, June 2, 2010, 2:30 p.m. at Family Faith Church in Huntsville, Texas with Rev. Jeff Hackleman officiating. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery, Evergreen, Texas. Family received friends Tuesday, June 1, 2010, 6:00-9:00 p.m. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville. Memorials can be made to the Joshua Cade Farris Memorial Fund at The Bank of San Jacinto, 100 Hwy. 150, Coldspring, Texas 77331. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com “ Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Farris, Marla and families: Bob and I send you our deepest sympathy. It seems it was just a few weeks ago when we were visiting with you (Mr. and Mrs. Farris) about your family and we remember especially the conversation on Josh and his accomplishments. We know your strong faith will see you through the coming days, weeks, and months as you grieve for the earthly loss of Josh. We also rejoice with you on the assurance Josh is now with his Lord and Saviour. May God grant you peace in this knowledge.

Love,

“ Jim and family, my deepest regards and most fervent prayers to you and your family. Although the loss is great the love is greater. I know you have the love and have been a strong father so he had to be a fine young man. Gods promises can be counted on and I know you will count on him to continue to lead you and your family through this time. I am sure he was as good man and friend as his Dad has been to so many. God Grace be with you and your family.

“ To Josh's family: I was saddened to learn of Josh's passing. He was a student in my Human Resource Management class at Sam Houston, and I had the opportunity to get to know him through discussions, both in the classroom and in my office. He was a bright, engaging, charming, and delightful young man. I know the students and I were better off, both professionally and personally, having Josh's presence around us. “ Dear Jim, Tania and family,

I was sorry to learn of your great loss as I have three kids and can only imagine the grief you are experiencing. Although I could not attend you the visitation, I was able to attend Josh's service. As you recall, your boys were very young during the time when I worked at Ed's West and I did not get to know them. It is appaerent that Josh had a tremendously positive impact on many people he encountered and I know that you are very proud of him.

I will be praying for your healing as I know that there will be difficult days ahead.

“ I feel BLESSED to have known this young man. I watched him grow both on and off the TROJAN field. He had a smile that would light up the darkest place. I know in my heart he and the rest of the FALLEN TROJANS are having a wonderful time being in the present of OUR LORD. Oh what a time they must be having. It is not easy to accept death, In the days ahead you will find yourself missing Josh and his smile, Just know that at these times THE LORD will be there with you. Cry if you must, but not as if there is no hope, For we know that one day we too must travel this road OUR LORD will also meet us and we will be with HIM and our family forever. “ Below is a poem I have read many times and I feel sure your hearts are feeling it's every word right. Only you and others that have lost a child could possibly understand the pain, but God does...he too lost a son. May you find strength and comfort in him, and in each other during these every difficult days ahead.

IF TEARS COULD...

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to heaven
To bring you home again.*

*No farewell words were spoken.
No time to say good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

*My heart still aches in sadness
And secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

Our words fail us at times like these, but we know that we know that our God is so good and loving and our Rock. As our pastor recently preached in our time of weeping we can strengthen ourselves in the Lord our God when grief would try to overcome us, and a great victory is just over the horizon. I Sam. 30:6

“ *Farris Family: Please accept our sympathy and condolences in your loss of Josh. Josh and my son, Clint were friends all through school at Coldspring and we were so saddened to hear the news today. When we moved back to the area and found out Clint had met Josh, I knew from being in high school with you all, that Josh would be a good person for my son to get to know. Josh was a great young man, always kind and friendly. He was one of the friendships Clint held on after everyone went their separate ways after high school. It seemed that even though the two of them did not see each other often, when they did visit again, it was just like no time had passed. “ To the Farris family,
We were so sorry to hear of your recent loss of your loved one and we are praying for your families. The book of Revelation clearly shows us a Christ who is unchanging and eternal. For those who trust in him as Savior, death can be approached with faith rather than fear, with confidence instead of confusion. Jesus is the same yesterday and today. He is unchanging tomorrow. He was dead and now is alive forever and ever. Whether death comes at 92 or 25, 67 or 49, the way we die says something about our faith. The way we die is as important as the way we live.

“ Dear Tania, Jim, Jim Bob and your families: Words cannot begin to express our sorrow for you during this incredibly hurtful and sorrowful time. We offer our love and hold your family up in our prayers. Our memories of Josh are sweet and gentle-just like him-a truly wonderful friend and son. We are thankful for Josh's life. May God hold you in the palm of His hand as he is now holding Josh. God belss you, our friends.

“ Jim & Family: I am so sorry for your loss of Josh. What a fine young man he was. As JW and I were talking a few minutes ago, he was such a fine Christian. He was always ready to jump up and help someone. I was so thankful for when he went and took Hayley to the emergency room 2 times when she had a virus. He has been such a good friend to JW and Hayley. I will always remember his smile. He was such a blessing to be around. May God bless and comfort you,

“ Jim, Tania, Jim Bob, Farris & Nelson families:
We can only offer our love, prayers, shared broken hearts, and words of life. You raised Josh to be a great young man. And Josh had 24 years of love, blessings, and Godly family that loved him dearly. That's more than many can say. We cry that Josh is gone, but we are thankful for his life.
We love you all dearly.

“ Dear Jim and Family,
My family holds your family up in prayer during this very difficult time... Even though many years have passed since 1976 ... we are still a close family of HHS '76ers and our hearts ache for you. May the Lord wrap His healing arms around you and hold you close to Him.. With much love Cindi

“ *To the Whole family of Josh,
We are so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful boy. He was a true God sent person, very endearing and such a gentle person. We know that words cannot heal and only time will ease the pain. Just know that you are never alone, Jesus is by your side and with Josh. We love you so very much. God bless you now and forever. Love, Elvin, Joann, Kelly, Ashley, Shelly, Joey, Jennifer & Joey.*

“ Jim and Family:
I am so sorry to hear about your son, Josh. I along with many of your classmates from HHS are praying and holding you and yours in our thoughts today.
I believe that God has Josh now, and that the separation and hurt that you are feeling is only for a time. One day, you will see him again along with all your loved ones that go on before you do. Hold on to your faith and trust the Lord to get you through this sad and hurtful time.
