“ Dear Family and friends of Joshua,

This past Sunday our Pastor Michael shared with us all the amazing visit he had with you in your time of need. As I looked about through my unstoppable flowing tears, all around me I saw many others weeping for your family. As a church we know that the best is yet to come for us and I want you to know that you are now a part of our church.

Phil 4:3

Father God,send Joshua's family Your peace that Jesus in person brought to us, Amen

“ I am so sad to hear about Josh's passing but I find much comfort in knowing he is in heaven with the Lord now and no longer feels pain. My thoughts and prayers go to his family and friends... Josh will stay alive in the hearts of all of the people who knew him and loved him. He was such a wonderful person and will be missed...

“ Words can't express the pain that the Giles/Hegemeyer family is going through. Josh always had a smile from ear to ear and could make anybodies day better. It was such a privilege to know Josh and I have many memories that I will cherish forever! To Ashley, I pray that you will find the strength to continue to be a wonderful mom and know that Josh will live on through you're handsome boys. Joshua Louis, ride your 4wheeler along the golden streets of heaven and keep your fishin pole handy! I will see you on the other side, my friend.

“ I have know this family way before Joshua was born. He was and is so loved by so many . Joshua and his sisters ALWAYS amazed me at the love they had for each other. I can honestly say as much as I was at thier home (and that was lots) I NEVER witnessed a fight between them children. They had endless love for one another. Tracy is a wonderfull mom, she loves them kids and puts her kids above and behond anything. She has raised great children. I pray for comfort for this family as they go through these hard hard times. We can always rember that little mischieves smile of Joshs and know he is smiling down on us from the heavens above...think of the 4 wheeler he is driving now...wow we love you Josh..RIP...girls and Tracy...I LOVE YALL..

“ I knew Josh from elementary through ninth grade. For that I am grateful. He helped me feel as if I fit in, and even in his plateful quiet ways, laughed at the stupid things I said. I wish I had known him now, in his faith, we would have had more in common than ever before. What an inspiration he truly is. I know he is in a place of Glory sitting by our God the Father, until the day we meet again.

“ I thank God for the privilege of knowing Joshua, even for such a short time.

I witnessed a loving mom who would willingly lay down her life for her son, trading places with him even in death if that were possible. I witnessed sisters who lavishly poured out their love for their brother, anointing his feet and hands with their tears and kisses. I witnessed a stepdad who self-sacrificially cared for Joshua's needs with tender compassion. I witnessed a dad who would've healed Joshua if only he could've.

I witnessed unconditional love coming from family, friends, and hospital staff, all grieving over the loss of this loved young man. I witnessed Joshua as he confirmed to me that Jesus Christ is his Lord and that Jesus would soon lead him into the Promised Land. I am blessed to know Joshua and his dear family and, one day, I know I'll sit with Joshua in glory and we'll talk about how sweet this past week truly was for all.

I'll see you on the other side brother.
