

Judie Gammons

May 12, 1945 - September 8, 2005

Judie Gammons (Court Coordinator for Walker County Court at Law) Helen Judith Gammons was born May 12, 1945 in Austin, Texas to James and Helen (Ince) Blundell and passed away September 4, 2005 in Huntsville. In 1965 she met and married William L. Gammons in Dallas, Texas. Judie has been a resident of Huntsville for twelve years. Prior to that she had lived in Tomball, Chicago, Ill and Virginia. For the past two years she was the county court coordinator in Judge Barbara Hale's County Court at Law. Prior to that she had worked in the office of James Patton County Clerk. She had an extra special ability to work with law enforcement, lawyers and court officers earning their love and respect. Judie was happiest with groups of people and she had social magnetism. She was a great companion to her mother and Christmas was her time of the year. For thirty-five years she was a housewife and mother extraordinaire. Her hobbies included antiques, sewing, gardening, remodeling, and dog breeding and training. She is survived by her mother Helen Blundell, husband William L. Gammons, son James William Gammons and wife Jolynn, son Robert Lee Gammons, son Mike Gammons, grandsons Joshua and Zachary Gammons, sisters Ann Duckworth and Carol Culpepper, three nieces Sharon Gupton, Linda Serra and Emily Bertino Culpepper and nephew Eli Culpepper, aunt Janice Dunlop of Austin and cousins Bill and Betty Dunlop of Austin. She was preceded in death by her father James Blundell. Services will be held at 1:00pm Thursday September 8, 2005 at the Chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. Flowers may be sent or donations be made to the American Cancer Society. Those wishing to leave condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com.

“ Bill, Judy you and the family will be in our prayers and masses. God has a way of taking those who love him the most and who are most worthy. We will never know why but there is a verse in proverbs 3:5-6 I will direct your steps.

Sincerely,
Bill and Donna Bailey
