“ Bobby: I only heard about your loss late today. I was in total shock. What a wonderful person Judy was, we shared a special bond especially since she loved my mom so much. I have so enjoyed getting to know her thru church and our "facebooking". I cannot tell you how sorry I am for your loss. I am so sorry I missed the service today, I was off work and could have been there. May God bless you and your lovely family. We love you...Margie & Curtis

“ I am so sorry to hear about Judy. We went to the Methodist Church in Pattonville and East Lamar Elementary and High School. Her Mom was our Sunday School teacher. We played basketball and had a good time in our little town. We haven't seen each other in a lot of years, but she was still a friend that will be missed.

“ My heart goes out to all of Judy's loved ones. I know that this is a very large number of people, because I'm sure that anyone who knew Judy, loved her. I had the privilege of working with her at TDCJ for a few years and she was a tremendous help and extremely enjoyable workmate. She will be greatly missed.

“ So sorry to learn of your loss. Judy was such a precious, special person. She always had that wonderful smile and caring demeanor. Mike told me the other day he had seen her in the grocery store and she asked about me; she was such a caring, giving person. I never heard her say an unkind word about or to anyone. Will always fondly remember our days at Sam and will always regret that I never told her what an inspiration she was to me. This earth's loss is truly Heaven's gain. Our love and prayers to you all.

“ Sadness tugs at our hearts for her family, friends, co workers. The world has lost a beautiful and loving saint that blessed everyone with the love of her Lord and Savior. She made this earthly life brighter for everyone she met. The words of this song states so well our thoughts

"I bet the trumpets play and the angels sing, Every sweet refrain of Amazing Grace.

And Heaven's hands opened up the gates

And the children danced when they saw your face, As happy as they are to see you coming,

I was just as sad to let you go, but

Knowing what I know about Heaven,

Believing that you're all the way home,

Knowing that your're somewhere better,

Is all I need to let you go."

With our love and prayers
