“ Nita,

Words cannot adequately express our condolences. We are touched with your grief through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. We want to encourage you and your family with Jesus' promise to go and prepare a place for us and come again and receive us into His place. Therefore, we want to comfort you and yours with these words. You will SEE Julia again. Meanwhile, embrace and celebrate!5ph all of the fond memories of her precious life.

*Warmly in Him,
Judith Marie*

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I just saw Julie's obituary in the paper. I am sorry that I missed the service. She was always smiling and cheerful even when she wasn't feeling well. She was so good to me and my brother. The only time my dad ever called or came around was when she was with him (for that I will be forever grateful to her). She always talked about you all....you were her life. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Lisa Fisk Buckaloo

“ Dear Lynn,
I am so sorry about the loss of your Mom. She must have been an amazing woman since I know her daughter is beyond amazing. I am thinking of you, Tim, and LUKE (!! wish I could meet him), and the rest of your family.
Respectfully,
Shelli

“ I've had the pleasure of meeting Julia a couple of times through my friend and her daughter, Lynn. She always struck me as a genuine, loving, and jolly person with a big smile to offer!
I will be praying for Julia's entire family to find peace through this difficult time, as the Lord is the one who grants us comfort in times such as these.
With my Deepest Sympathy,
Shannon Gray
