

Justin Raymond Curren

August 10, 1945 - September 14, 2016

Justin Raymond Curren, age 71, passed away on Wednesday, September 14, 2016. He was born on August 10, 1945 at Memorial Hospital in Houston, TX to Edward and Pauline (Songy) Curren. A proud native Houstonian, he attended Blessed Sacrament School and St. Thomas High School. He earned a Bachelor's degree from the University of Houston and a Master's degree from the University of Redlands. While at the University of Houston, he met Dona Catherine Osborn. Shortly after graduating, they married and spent the next half century together raising four sons and countless dogs. Early in his career he served as a special education teacher and then worked in the insurance industry where, over decades, he built many relationships and shared his knowledge with younger coworkers. While no longer a teacher, he still loved teaching, whether through coaching his sons' baseball teams or mentoring the next generation of golfers through the Houston Golf Association Junior Golf Program. He retired in 2010 and spent his time playing golf with his friends, fishing with his sons, traveling with his wife and spoiling his grandchildren. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Dona; his four sons, David (Becky), Ryan, Donnie and Andrew (Mary Catherine); and three grandchildren, Reilly, Emory and James. Justin will be missed dearly.

“We expect to receive again our own bodies, though they be dead and cast into the earth, for we maintain that with God nothing is impossible.” – Saint Justin Martyr

“ Andrew and Curren family, I am so sorry for your loss. I did not have the privilege of meeting your father, but based on my friendship with you and knowing what a great man he raised in you, I can only begin to imagine what an amazing father he must have been to you and your brothers. Prayers for you and your family from ours.

“ Andrew+ Dona- very sad to hear the news of Justin's passing. Andrew, he was so proud of you, and was thrilled to share the news of your success here in Austin.. My wife and I just recently visited 24 Diner and talked about how he bragged about you just like I do with my children. Our sincere condolences on your loss, and I'll be sure to remember him in the prayer book at St.Mary's Cathedral here in Austin at daily mass. “ Justin was a colleague during the years I worked at Johnson & Higgins. He had an uncanny ability to bring levity and humor to the serious business of insurance and risk management. He could be counted on to bring good cheer into the office or to any J&H event. It made him well liked AND greatly appreciated by those of us who needed to lighten up!

Fond memories. I know he will be missed by many.

Sincerely,

Susan Harting

“ How can we forget the trips to Breaux Bridge, New Iberia and the Tabasco Gardens, des Anis Café and Cajun Country Cottages! Memories to never be forgotten.

Justin is my friend and will always be... since St. Thomas High School days...1959.

Just a few weeks ago, he and I were talking about going to Patrenella's for lunch and bocce ball. We really love that place.

Justin is really missed already.

Donna, Trish and I are always available to you for lunch, dinner or a trip to Louisiana. Also, if you just need company.... Just a call away. May God bless Justin for his kindness, his humor and his concern for others.

“ Our deepest condolences to Dona, the boys, and their families. First cousins but we loved him as our brother as he would spend each summer with us in Reserve, LA. I know the pain of an unexpected loss of a loved one as I lost my daughter just last week. Know that the God who created this entire universe has him in His loving arms in a place where there is only peace and love.
