“ I only heard of Kala's story today, and I am completely grief-stricken for this sweet family and their loss. There are no words that can offer comfort when someone is taken from their loved ones in a senseless act. I can only offer my sincere condolences. Please know that you are all in my prayers.

“ Dear surviving family members of Kala, I am so sorry for what has happened. My heart breaks for you all and for Kala. You do not know me, nor did Kala, but ever since the day Kala passed away, I have been searching for updates online. I have a 11-month-old son and when I look at Keegan's pictures, it just breaks my heart knowing that this baby doesn't have a chance to know his mommy on earth. Kala sounds like such a wonderful mom, and I know she would have wanted to see her sons and be with them while they are growing up. I am so, so sorry that this has happened. If there is any condolences, though, I am sure that Kala is here in spirit with you all and with Kamden, Keaton, and Keegan. I have never been more sure of Heaven before Kala's story. But she reminds me of Jesus' love. Just as Jesus died for us all, Kala died for her child. For that very reason, I am sure she is already in Heaven now, watching over you all and watching her children grow up. I will continue to pray for your family and I hope and pray that the children will grow up surrounded by people who love them, and that they will know their mother and her love for them in their hearts.

“ To the family of Kala my heart absolutely breaks for you. I have kept all of you in my thoughts and prayers since this first happened. I do not know Kala but I have been following this story since it happened. I am a mother of two and I have an infant son. I can not wrap my head around this horrific selfish tragedy as to why someone would want to take such a beautiful life away from her three babies. Kala is hero in my eyes to have given her life for her child as I think any caring loving mother would do. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers. May GOD bless you and give you strength to live each day.

I hope and pray they give this woman that did this the death penalty which will not even be justice for taking Kala's life, however GOD will give her the justice she deserves when she as her judgement day...

Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your GOD, I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you, with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10

“ I just want to express my heartfelt sympathy to Kala's family for this tragic loss. It is unbelievable that such a thing could happen; a young mother just taking her new baby to the doctor. I pray for strength for all of you. I especially pray for those three precious little boys. I am a grandmother from West Texas.

“ To Kala's family and friends, I'm so very sorry for your loss.

I heard about her story on the news here in California, while awake in the middle of the night nursing my newborn son, and it deeply, deeply saddened me. It was just a couple of days prior that I myself had taken my boy, Noah, to his first pediatrician appointment, and I simply cannot imagine how her similar visit ended so tragically.

Please accept my sincere condolences, and know that I and many others around the World ache for you and for Kala.
