“ what an amazing young man that has left us. thank god for cameron zurbrick. i went to high school with him. and here in austin, he lived two exits south of me. he came over to my house often while he was here or would surprise me at work. and we had the best, most insightful conversations. a wonderful friend to me. he was just an incredible boy way beyond his years. my heart goes out to he and his family and other friends.

“ Kameron touched our lives so briefly, yet in an instant he has changed our lives forever. In his grief Bobby said " My life will never be the same", without a doubt that is true, but we are grateful that Kameron now has the peace that he sought and so thankful for the time we knew him. Our love and condolences to you Karin...

“ I am sorry to say I only knew Kam for a short amount of time. But in the last 5 monthes, I had the oppurtunity to be a part of his life. He will be very much so missed but I know that he will always be here with Andy and I. We love him so much. I know that I will Never forget him and how wonderful a person he was and in my heart, still is. Your family is in my prayers Karin and just know that your son touched so many lives in so many ways, especially my own.

God bless you and your family

“ Karen & Family
Y'all are in my thoughts and prayers. I've seen Kameron and Andy grow from young boys to young men. Kameron was always so very nice to me! With out a doubt he was kind and caring and helpful and loving. I always enjoyed when he and Andy would come knock on my door to help Aunt Jeanne! I with so many others will miss Kameron so very much! He will hold a place in my heart always! My love to y'all! God Bless!

“ I am deeply sorry about the passing of Kameron. I first met Kameron in middle school. We were boyfriend/girlfriend in sixth grade. He gave me my very first valentines present. He was a really sweet guy. I will always remember the way he wore his socks differently back then. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and close friends. God Bless you all.
