“ OUR MIRACLE

*Your arrival had come.
Our miracle came true.
We were ready for a Miracle and that Miracle was you.*

*The crib was in place.
The carousel too.
Every thing there was shiny and new.*

*You'd have the best clothes.
And attend the best schools.
You'd learn about Jesus and follow His rules.*

*Our perfect dreams
We lost them today.
Now, precious, Miracle. you've been taken away.*

*We don't understand.
We just sit and cry.
Wish someone could tell us the answer to "Why?".*

*Lonely, the arms,
That held you while sleeping.
We put you in God's hands, for the safe keeping.*

*The weather man said,
"Sunshine today".
But inside our hearts the world is all gray.*

*It must be God's will.
Yet we don't agree.
The reason for this? Someday we might see.*

*I straighten the pillow.
Where your head was to lay.*

And hold to the faith, that we'll see you someday.

Your arrival had come.

Our miracle came true.

We'll be ready in heaven when we get to hold you.
