“ *Dear Amy, Dan, Grace, Daniel, and Joe,
We were stunned to hear about your mom. Amy, you're a sweet and wonderful daughter to be there with her during her last days. We kept up with you online, and we appreciated your frequent updates. Please know that we are thinking of you, and we pray that God will wrap you and your family in His arms and make His presence known during this difficult time. Love and hugs from John, Johanna, Olivia, and Stewart.*

“ Dear Amy and Joey and family,

I cannot tell you how stunned I was this morning to read of your mother's death and so soon after your father's death. How sad for your family. Kathy and I were great friends when we worked at MD Anderson. She was so good to me even inviting my family to your house for Thanksgiving dinner and you all taking my daughter, Amy, and me to visit A & M. At Thanksgiving dinner your dad took my son, Todd, riding on their bikes. We stayed in touch after retirement with phone calls and Christmas cards.

My thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time.

“ Joe Jr & Amy and family:

We are so sorry to hear about the demise of Kathy so soon after you lost your father also. We have known both of them since they lived in Braeburn Valley West, where we also lived. Kathy and I traveled together to M.D. Anderson, where we worked till she retired. I introduced them to our St. Albert Church, where they were very active till they retired to Huntsville. She was a very good friend. We kept in touch and conversed once in a while, and let each others know about our family's growth during Christmas. She had called me when your father passed away also. Although we are so sorry to hear about her demise, when we think how happy she is now, we are glad. She couldn't have survived without your Dad for long. Our condolences to you both, Dan and your children Amy. Our prayers are with you. May God give you courage to bear your loss.
