“ I don't have a memory per se, because I only knew this lovely lady very briefly and at the end of her brave journey. But as a healthcare provider, you can judge a person by their family. By the husband she lives with... by the children she raised... by the grandchildren she loved. What a remarkable woman she must have been to have such a family. I am not one to forget my patients... I promise she will not be forgotten. I hope and pray you all find peace and comfort in her absence. This is all I would ever want for myself.... she "died peacefully in her home surrounded by her loving family". Tough as it was... You all did right by her, Courageous crew. You're in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Aunt Kathy, I remember the first time I met you. I laugh about the day we realized we went to the same nail shop for so many years! I also remember my first impression of you. I spent a lot of time at Uncle Bubba’s before you were a part of our lives, and I have ALWAYS appreciated how you’ve loved he and Jacob so deeply. You made a huge difference in their life and for that, we will forever be grateful. I remember overhearing grandma and grandpa talking about you, saying, in almost EVERY conversation your name came up in for the first few years, “she sure loves Bubba!) There is no doubt you are loved by him in return! You’ve been there for my grandparents when they’ve needed you, you’ve been a loving wife, with a little spice (because I’m sure you had to be a little feisty to live with my uncle all these years 😭) and you’ve been a terrific mom, and even better grandparent! I’ve thought of you so many times in the last several days. I always missed seeing you at all of the “standard” holiday functions when y’all started doing your own, but definitely understood. Now I’ll miss seeing you forever, and worse, so will your sweet family that you loved to care for so much. That, is not something I will ever understand.
I love you, Heather

“ Kathy told me she felt God called her to be a missionary when she was a teenager. And He did. Only He didn't send her far away. He planted her right here to save children and minister to them as they came her way.
