“ Warning - When I Am an Old Woman I Shall Wear Purple

By Jenny Joseph

*When I am an old woman, I shall wear purple with a red hat that doesn't go, and doesn't suit me.
And I shall spend my pension on brandy and summer gloves
and satin candles, and say we've no money for butter.
I shall sit down on the pavement when I am tired
and gobble up samples in shops and press alarm bells
and run my stick along the public railings
and make up for the sobriety of my youth.
I shall go out in my slippers in the rain
and pick the flowers in other people's gardens
and learn to spit.*

*You can wear terrible shirts and grow more fat
and eat three pounds of sausages at a go or only bread and pickles for a week
and hoard pens and pencils and beer nuts and things in boxes.*

*But now we must have clothes that keep us dry
and pay our rent and not swear in the street
and set a good example for the children.
We must have friends to dinner and read the papers.
But maybe I ought to practice a little now?
So people who know me are not too shocked and surprised
When suddenly I am old, and start to wear purple.*

*Katie has been a wonderful example of a woman for me in the few years I have known her. She loved you beyond measure Perry.
Thank you for being a part of who she was and for sharing her with the rest of us.*

When I am old - I want to be like Katie; and I think it's time to practice now.

"For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain." Phil 1:21 (life is hard, death is relief) Rest in Peace Katie, you have left us with wonderful memories that we will cherish all our days.

“ Perry, words can't describe our feelings at this moment. We love you and Katie so much and have wonderful memories of the times we were able to be together with you both one-on-one when we went to the stage shows and out to eat----personal time at the Lodge was always great. Please know that our hearts are heavy at this time but that you both have been in our thoughts and prayers and will continue to be.
