

Kay F. Hackenbruch

December 17, 1941 - December 28, 2015

Kay F. Hackenbruch, 74, beloved wife, mother and grandmother entered into eternal rest on December 28, 2015 after a brief battle with cancer.

Kay was born in Greencastle, Indiana on December 17, 1941 and was preceded in death by her parents James M. and Alice Frazer. Kay grew up in Covington, Indiana where she graduated from Covington High School. She received her Bachelors in Education in 1963 from Indiana State University, then going on to fulfill a lifelong passion for teaching in which she taught over 30 years before retiring from Katy ISD in 2003. It was at Indiana State University she met and married the love of her life in February 1963. Kay and her husband moved to Elkin's Lake in 2005 after living and raising their 3 children for over 25 years in Katy, Texas. Kay was a member of several community groups and organizations and was well loved by those who knew her.

Kay is survived by her dear husband of 52 years, Dave Hackenbruch of Elkin's Lake in Huntsville, Texas; along with her two daughters, Traci (Stephen) Pyka of The Colony, Tx, and Julie Daugherty of Houston, Tx; her son, David (Tracy) Hackenbruch of Humble, Tx; and her grandchildren Morgan Pyka, Trevor Pyka, Ava Daugherty, Ethan Hackenbruch, and Garet Hackenbruch. Kay is also survived by her older sister, Lorelei Grabow of Kankakee, Illinois; and younger brother, Louie (Linda) Frazer of San

Bernadino, California

The family will receive friends from 1:00pm till 2:00pm on Saturday, January 2, 2016 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. Friends are invited to gather with the family to celebrate the life of Kay during a funeral service to be held on Saturday, January 2, 2016 at 2:00pm at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. A private graveside service for family will be held after the funeral.
