“ Keith, you will be missed. I remember the good time we had in New Mexico when you drove a Cadillac with a trailer from Houston to Santa Fe. You took your time to move a very precious family to Santa Fe that was in dire need to get there. You were always so helpful!! That family benefited and God moved through you! I will always remember your kind ways.

The fight is over and you WIN the battle. You are with Jesus!

“ RIP my friend. I shall miss your company at the curry lunches that I always enjoyed your company at when you came to Houston. We never made it to my friend's ranch where I was looking forward to getting some pigs. The Happy Hunting Grounds await all of us! Godspeed!
