

Keith E. Fisher

January 12, 1969 - December 19, 2024

Keith Edward Fisher was born on January 12, 1969, in Houston Texas. He went to be with the Lord on December 19, 2024 in Conroe, Texas at the age of 55. He is survived by his mother, Juanita Fisher and dad Harry Fisher, father Dillon Musgrove and step mother Heather Musgrove, wife Michele Wojcik, son Ethan Fisher and fiancé Destiny Dessell, daughter Emily Fisher and fiancé Trenton Scott, son Christian Fisher and wife Beth, step daughter Savanna Chitwood, granddaughter Emerie Piper Fisher, brother Bobby Fisher and wife Julie, sister Lanita and husband Jay Brown, Tyler Musgrove, Chelsea and husband Steven Bass, nieces Britany and husband Corey Jordan, Taylor and husband Dylan Cassell, Kelsey and husband Gavin Ritch, Geneva Taylor, nephew Cody Fisher and wife Amber, and numerous great nieces and nephews.

Keith is preceded in death by his wife Piper Fisher, niece Hailey Fisher and nephew Jace Brown.

Keith lived his life with the gas pedal to the floor and as in the Bon Jovi song "Living On A Prayer". After graduating high school in the late 80's Keith's ambition was to join the United States Navy where he was stationed in Lemoore, California where he proudly served his country. After serving his country, Keith came home and held several different occupations which included being a brick-mason and a glass-cutter. Due to an unfortunately accident Keith's glass-cutting profession was cut short and he was forced into retirement and being disabled. Although Keith was disabled that did not stop him from doing what he enjoyed with those that he loved. He enjoyed spending time with his family, sitting around a fire, while drinking a cold cerveza or two. Keith had two true passions in his personal time, one being hunting and the other being fishing. He would endlessly spend hours and hours in the woods and near the water.
