“ So sorry to hear of ya'lls loss. I remember going to Kenny's home and he gave us the grand tour, and what a beautiful home, he was so proud of it. Back when you all lived on Ave. H in Fort Worth, my mom and I would visit and oh, what chaos lol. I too remember as an adult coming to Houston to visit the Welch family, oh what a good time I had. Talk of old times,going to the mall with Aunt Helen and getting our ears pierced. That was Fun!! Visiting with all the handsome Welch guys. You all had such an impact on my life. I'll forever hold you in my heart. Love ya, Kenny & all the family. Your cousin Little JoAnn

“ I worked with both Kenny & Karla for years at WFI and a more wonderful couple you'll never find. True friends and always together laughing and making others enjoy life as well. I haven't seen them for a while but I know they were still the loving couple they always were. My prayers and love to Karla and family.
