“ We live next door to Kent. We certainly will miss him as a neighbor. We thought him an extremely considerate neighbor. We wish we could have known him longer. An example of his thoughtfulness was, rather than bother his neighbors with his motorcycle, he was observed pushing it to the corner before starting it and even killed the engine and coasted home many, many times. We are saddened for your loss and pray for guidance for his loved ones. He always had smiles and waves for us all.
