“ Kent & I were married in 1975 & split in 1977. I agree w Don Baker that his greatest accomplishment was as an Antarctic explorer. You must remember this, a kiss is just a kiss... RIP, Kent.

“ Kent was the station manager for Doppler 019 at McMurdo Station, Antarctica, during the year 1973. I succeeded him in 1974. He made the transition effortless and got me off to a good start.

“ Wow... Just saw this. Sad indeed. And the obit missed one of Kent's greatest life accomplishments.... Kent was an 'OAE' (Old Antarctica Explorer) having Wintered Over on the Ice in the early 70's. I was proud to have been Ken's Winter-Over Partner. RIP old friend. Don Baker (don@7fllc.com)
