“ Mr. Delgado, Cookie, Karolyn: Not a day has passed that I don't think of Kim or look up at the sky and smile at her in Heaven. I remember all the fun times we had together in high school and college. I feel God blessed me with Kim as my best friend. I miss her more than words can express. But I know that she is more beautiful and happy than ever looking down on all of us, always by our side. My friend said it best...God picks flowers of all kinds, from buds, to fully bloomed. Kim is one of Gods budding flowers. So young, vibrant, and beautiful. I miss and love you, Kim. My heart is with all your family... Natalie (or as Kim nicknamed me "Nat Rat"

“ To the family of Kim Delgado: My heartfelt sympathy to you all! I met Kim once or twice several years ago. I used to carpool to work with her mother (Kris Rankin) and Kris talked often and lovingly about her two daughters. Even though she was not near them, Kris demonstrated the love only a mother can have. I know the Lord is taking great care of her until you all meet her again. Until then, may he bless you with his comfort and assurance that she has no more pain and no more tears and will smile from the stars over you until she sees you again. Peggy Duffield

“ Karolyn,
My mom told me about Kim. I remember playing with you guys at you house in Woodland Hills when we were in elementary school, and I remember that Kim was so funny...the older sister that we all looked up to when we were only 9-10 years old. I just wanted you to know that my heart goes out to you and your family. I'll be thinking about all of you and remembering Kim.

“ To Kristine, Karolyn, Eddie & Diane:

Words cannot succinctly convey the sadness we feel. We always looked forward to Kim's visits to the Seattle area. Her bubbly and colorful personality assured us all that we would have a good time. It seemed as if a festive aura naturally followed her. But what always struck us was Kim's rare ability to have fun not at the expense of others. We never heard her utter a disparaging word toward anyone. It was truly a gift. We always thought we would have more opportunities to have afternoon teas, sip cocktails or simply chitchat with Kim. Sadly, she left us much too soon. And, as a result, our lives seem a bit less vivid.

“ To the family of Kimberly G. Delgado: I want to offer my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Although I was unable to meet Kim, I am sure she made a lasting impact on everyone she met. My heart goes out to you, because it saddens me to hear of so many losing their family members and friends, especially at such young ages. With that said, we can look forward, with absolute confidence, to the time spoken of at Revelation 21:4, which says that God, "...will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore..." I hope that your family gains the much needed comfort during this most difficult time.

“ Just as I was really getting to know KimmyD, she passed from my life, leaving a void that is unlikely to be filled. She was an amazing person, with a kind heart, a warm smile and the most open of hearts; someone you wanted to be around in the hopes that a little bit of that vibrancy might rub off on you.

She is in my prayers every night, as are the Delgado, Rankin and Hagan families... my hope is that, even in those last moments, Kimmy fully understood just how loved she was.

“ One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints, He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, You said that once I decided to follow You, You'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most You would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

God blesses us with the most beautiful of gifts, our children. All our lives have a purpose and in Kim's short time here she must have accomplished hers. Our loss on earth is God's gain in heaven. I am so sorry you had to let her go and will keep all of you in my prayers.

“ Dear Delgado Family and Friends, Justin and I met Kim at Stephen F. Austin State University over ten years ago. I remember the first time I met Kim and how her smile and laugh brightened a room. She was a very passionate person and always gave her absolute best in what ever she was doing. She loved life and would give her shirt off her back for anyone at anytime. She loved her kitty cats Olive and Martini like they were her kids. She befriended people where ever she went. It disheartens me that I have to now write about my dear friend in the past tense, but I know that her spirit will always live on in each and everyone of us. “ I hired Kim at BindView several years ago. She was up against about 5 other applicants and we did group interviews (3 or 4 of us on one side of the table and Kim on the other!). She wowed us with her energy, enthusiasm, and her presence. In her work she turned out to be meticulous, detail oriented, and so willing to work hard to get something right. Kim was always smiling and asking my life and family. I have very fond memories of her telling me the trials of teeth whitening and other crazy stories (I'm smiling remembering them).
