“ Joe and I will deeply miss Klaus. He was a faithful servant. A good man. He loved seeing those children receive communion. And practice their Faith. Deacon, We loved you. And may you rest in the eternal peace of the Lord. The race is finished, and You ran it well. Love Deborah and Joe Creppon.

“ I was so hopeful that he would recover and come back to us. He was ever faithful, always quietly dependable, and loved his God. I truly miss his earthly presence. It is my belief that though we weep, Deacon rejoices in heaven. My faith says his work here on earth has prepared him for his heavenly duties and rewards. Rest in peace knowing you served well.
