“ Dear Misty,

There are sufferings that are hard to understand even when we strive to know God's word to the best of our ability and certainly the loss of such a wonderful young man as Lane can really test our faith and trust in Him. Many parents who have lost a child have said "it just doesn't seem right for my child to die before me". There are no words to adequately express our sorrow for your loss. Please know, however, that you are in our personal prayers and also our corporate prayers for God to provide you with strength during the difficult days ahead and then bless you with peace about the wonderful son you had and who touched so many lives during his time with us. We have heard many say what a wonderful teacher you are at Alpha Omega and we hope you will not lose sight of the ways you can continue to touch others lives as you go forward because that will be such a great living memorial to Lane.

God bless,

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends of Lane. I had the opportunity to coach against Lane in football and baseball as the head coach of both sports at Covenant Christian. I got a chance to know Lane and found him polite and well mannered and whether he won or lost, he was humble.
Lane, myself and Marco would visit after the baseball games. Even though the time was short, I gained a lot of respect for Lane and the other players on the AO teams. Lane will be remembered for his character and class. Lane led by example. I know this time will be difficult, AND I HOPE AND PRAY THAT THE LORD WILL BRING YOU COMFORT AND PEACE.

“ To all of Lane's family,
Lane is one of the sweetest, caring, dedicated and God loving young men, we have ever met. We were fortunate to have known him for two short years since our move to Huntsville, but those years were filled with absolute quality friendship and love at AOA with team sports, birthdays, and fishing trips! He always had a big smile on his face with a welcoming big hug!! Many times, we wished we would have known him longer. He was always there to give support to every friend! We will always love you, Laner! Our prayers of comfort and love go to your family and friends, as we will miss you on earth, but heaven is so close, and we have the true comfort that we will see you soon enough with our LORD in heaven, where you are enjoying the best game and the very best JOY!!

“ I'm so sorry for the loss of your son from one mother to another it's a loss you will never get over. I lost my son June 1,2014 and still today the pain in my heart overwhelms me. Grief is different for each person so don't let anyone tell you it's time to move on. You have the right to grieve for as long as you need to. My son Matthew Ivey died 1 year after being diagnosed with acute myeloid leukemia we prayed for his healing but he still slipped out of this world on June 1st. The loss has changed me and you too will be forever changed. We can both find comfort in the fact that our boys are in heaven but the earthly part of us will always not understand why. I hope this helps and let's you know you have the right to greive for as long as you want because you are Lanes mother.

“ My condolences to the Smith and Lampson families. I am so sorry for the loss of such a promising and talented you man. Although time and unforeseen occurrences befall us, some Bible scriptures that have helped me include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:28 which state in part: "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will forever live upon it." Therefore the Bible promises that we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of life in world without wickedness or suffering. I hope these scriptures will be of a little comfort to you.
