“ I remember Larry and his brothers. His mom was very special to me. I guess it was out senior year, I was at Midway and Larry was at Richfield. They played Temple in a basketball game. To tell you the truth I don't remember who won, only how exciting it was to watch Larry play. If you never saw him play basketball you really missed something special.

“ My memories of Larry in High School were of his joking around all the time, so RIP Larry, it is always sad to hear about one of our High School Class Mates passing on and leaving the rest of us here. Yep, Larry was always one to be at the head of the line, but think he should have waited just a little longer in this case. My attempt at Larry Humor, sad Larry is no longer with us. Living the life past 70 is not easy or fun no matter what anyone tells ya.
