“ Larry I will miss your sense of humor, all your funny jokes, and your wonderful body work. THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR KEEPING MY CAR RUNNING IT REALLY WASN'T IN THE DIVORCE PAPERS. I hope there is fishing and hunting in Heaven and at least one old car to tinker with. May all your days in Heaven be filled with joy.

“ Pappaw you were truely an amazing man. You worked hard for everything you accomplished and had a great talent and passion for cars, boats, fishing and pretty much anything that was fast and dangerous. You always had a great sense of humor, the most beautiful blue eyes and the loudest yet funniest laugh ever. Donnie, Clay and Misty I admire you for all your strength, unconditional love and excellent care. Pappaw all our memories shared will forever live in my heart. We all miss and love you dearly, rest in peace.

“ It was a pleasure getting to know you Larry. Your kindness to my son Joe at a low point in his life is something I will forever remember about you.

Being best man at his wedding speaks volumes of how he felt about you.

Thank you Larry and may you rest in peace.
