

Larry Siems

August 1, 2024

We are heartbroken to announce the passing of Larry "Big Pop" Siems. He passed away on August 1, 2024, while at home with his wife in Houston, TX. Larry was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He was a dear friend to many and will be greatly missed. Larry was an avid fisherman and hunter; he took great enjoyment in cooking "way too much" food. He loved reading bargains and trade magazines and watching old western movies. Larry had a big personality and loved to share stories, especially when we gathered around to eat. He enjoyed singing and listening to country music, particularly Brooks & Dunn's "Neon Moon" and Clint Black's "Better Man."

He leaves behind his wife, Toni Siems; sister, Linda Sue Matejek and husband, Michael; niece, Stacey Matejek; great-niece, G'Angela; and children (grandchildren) Tiffani and Sam Paine (Keigan, Karli, Kaitlyn), Jessica and Stan O'Hagan (Dahlyla, Jacoby, Maddyx), Tasha and Jason Daniels (Gabbie, Maverick), Brittney and Stephen Goudeau (Avery, Journey), Tanner and Ashley Siems, and Kimi Inglet. He also leaves behind many lifelong friends and family. He is preceded in death by his father, Ervin Earl Siems; mother, Lydia Kaluza Siems; and brother, Danny Earl.

Larry Wayne Siems was born on April 9, 1954 in Houston, TX.

A viewing will occur on Thursday, August 8, 2024, from 1:00 to 3:00 PM at
