“ Laura was one of the most delightful people I met in 16 years as an instructor at Sam Houston and an inspiring elder who continued to do new things and learn new things!

“ My Nana did many great and wonderful things with me, we traveled together, went on many trips, she taught me how to love, how to hold my money in my bra, she bought me clothes, and made me gifts that I can cherish for the rest of my life. She was a great listener with out judgement, she was strong willed and opinionated, but never made you feel wrong or less than a good person. She loved to learn, create, and embrace everyone she met. She was one to know, and have in your corner. Love you Nana, and the life you lead has made you a wonderful and great woman to cherish forever. Till we meet again, keep on keeping on.
