In Loving Memory

Laurie Lynn Dabrow-Novacek-LeBoeuf July 26th, 1962 – May 18th, 2015

Laurie was born July 26th, 1962 to John and Patty Dabrow (Colglazier) in Arkansas City, KS. Laurie was a beloved Wife, Mother, Daughter, Grandmother, Sister and Friend to many. She was always the life of the party, and knew how to put a smile on everyone's face. She loved unconditionally, and valued family and friends above all.

Laurie grew up in Wichita, KS. She graduated from Wichita South High School in 1980. She worked as the Camp Wrangler and Horseback Riding Instructor at Camp Hyde. Later she married and gave birth to two children (Ashley and Abbigale). She was an AVP at Intrust Bank, however her career took her to Houston, TX where she worked at Delta Card Services in Katy, TX. Eventually Laurie started her own Consulting Company, Take Charge Business Consulting, LLC. Laurie met her husband Robert LeBoeuf in Houston, TX and they were married in September of 2000. Laurie and Robert had many adventures and travels together. They made their home in Willis, TX where she spent her last days. She loved tending to the yard and laying by her pool. She especially loved when family and friends would visit and she could entertain and make more memories.

Laurie is survived by her Husband Robert LeBoeuf, Daughters Ashley Cordle (Cameron), Abbigale Crochet (Brad), Mother Patty Brewer, Father John Dabrow, Sisters Tammy Willard, Kristin Barbeau, LeAnn Latrell, Grandchildren

Dear John, Leann and Laurie's entire family! I am so saddened and shocked to see this. Never had the pleasure of knowing Laurie, but will never forget all of Eleanor's stories about Laurie and her children. My thoughts, prayers and love are with you at this tragic time!xxoo

“ There were so many times in junior high and high school that I found myself laughing so hard I was crying. Now I find myself crying without laughing and it's because a wonderful person's life was cut so tragically short. Laurie never made an enemy she always made a friend and I know wherever her friends are, at this moment, we're all feeling the same sense of disbelief and sadness. May the memories of her great smile, kind soul and contagious laughter bring us all peace at this sad, sad time. Love to her family and friends, she was truly one of the genuinely good ones!
