“ I remember when Amber , Curtis Lee and Ashley and all the other grandkids, were young. Lawrence would always play Santa Clause,It's hard to say who had the most fun him or the kids. He loved his family very much and it showed in everything he did. I remember on the kids birthday's he and Louise would always have a big party for them.We would sit outside and watch the kids play for hours on end and we also enjoyed being around both he and Louise. Since Amber Curtis Lee and Ashley lost their other Grandfather when they were so young, I want to say THANK YOU To Lawrence for always being there for them, and giving them the extra Love they needed.

“ I have only had the privilege of knowing Lawrence (Poe Poe) for alittle over 2 years....he's been sick since I met him... His heart .. His love for his children, grand babies And yes his two dogs buddy and Rocco is all I saw ,,, always glad to have company , and no matter how he felt ,, he loved being outdoors.. Riding in the golf cart with the pups, BBQ all of it.. I believe he was the one who held this family together so well,,,, he will be missed may he be at peace and may the lord bless and watch over his entire family❤️❤️

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of a wonderful friend, husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. He is no longer suffering, but will be greatly missed by all that knew him and deeply loved him. We will forever cherish the wonderful times and memories we have of time spent together camping, picnicking, dancing, spending time at family gatherings, being neighbors for many years and friends forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time.
