

Lawrence Eugene Sechelski

October 24, 1949 - July 23, 2015

Lawrence Eugene Sechelski, the loving husband of Judith Wingo Sechelski, passed away after a courageous battle with cancer at his Pasadena, Texas home, surrounded by family on July 23rd, 2015. He was 65.

Larry was born and raised in Navasota, Texas to parents David and Margaret (Busa) Sechelski on October 24th, 1949. Upon graduating high school, Larry joined the United States Navy where he served as Boilerman on the USS Hornet and USS Epperson. Larry was aboard the USS Hornet on its recovery mission of the Apollo 11 space capsule in the Pacific Ocean, on July 24th, 1969. After serving in the military, Larry enjoyed a 33 year career with Armco Steel Arco Chemical and Lyondell Chemical where he worked as a control room operator in Channelview, Texas.

Recently, Larry had committed his time during retirement to building his and Judy's retirement home in Montgomery, Texas. Larry is remembered as a loving husband, father, brother, avid fisherman and faithful child of God.

Larry is survived by his wife, Judith Wingo Sechelski of Pasadena, daughter Tina Stark and husband Tra of Baytown and their children Nikolas, Timothy and Natalie Stark; daughter Julie Billings and husband Chris of Dayton, and their children Jade and Elizabeth Billings; and step-daughters Jennifer and Jamie Wingo. Larry is also remembered by his siblings: Bobby Sechelski and wife Gloria Macias, John Sechelski and friend Jan O'Neill, Dorothy Malek and husband Joey, Jeanny Lawrence and husband James, Cecelia Pearson, Diane Villarreal and husband David, Susie Sechelski; aunts Anna Mae Verzurk and husband Steve, Lucille Burzynski, Margaret Peters and Verlyn Busa; and uncle Harold Wisnoski as well as many loved nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his mother, Margaret Busa Sechelski and his father, David Sechelski.

The Sechelski family will hold a funeral service at First Baptist Church of Montgomery on Monday, July 27th, 2015 at 10:30 AM. The funeral service will be led by Pastor Wes Faulk of Memorial Baptist Church in Pasadena, Texas. Visitations will be held on Sunday, July 26th from 6-8 PM and Monday, July 27th at 9-10:30 AM. After the service, the family will host a reception at the St. Joseph's Catholic Church Hall at 12 PM. Larry will be laid to rest at St. Joseph Church Cemetery in Stoneham, Texas.

“ I feel terrible that I could not come to support the family during this time. It is crazy and sad how demanding our lives can be. Nothing is more important than family. Please forgive me. You are in my heart and prayers.

“ Larry was the oldest cousin on the Busa side of the family. I remember him not playing with all of us little kids because he was just too cool! He was a great person and will be greatly missed.

“ Our lives are all weaved in and out. The first time I meet Larry was the day that Jimmy Peters died. Larry came up to Alan and I at Carroll's Giant Burger tto tell us. No cell phones at that time.

Larry was a very kind and wonderful person. He is now with his parents, the Finke's , Mema and Papa and my parents. No more pain, just joy !!!! I will pray for all of you for God's strength and mercy, and grace. Love you all.
