“ Lee McGown

“ My very first CPR call after I became an EMT was as a volunteer in Dodge. Lee was on the box that day and I jumped in the truck once we moved the patient from the house to the truck, she looked at me and said start bagging him....so, fresh out of class, fresh off my ride outs and taking my test and passing.. I start text book bagging...she looked at me and said "we are trying to save the man, don't count just bag" I was horrified, but she got me through it all while doing her job too. She taught me so much about EMS and about life and how to love your family. She had so much love for her family it was contagious. Lee was an awesome teacher, she was funny, told you how it was, and will be dearly missed..

“ I remember years back when both units were at the old fire station. One night around 2:00 A.M. I heard this loud noise and Lee screaming and jumping out of bed. Scared me which made me jump out of bed. We thought one of the rodents came through the ceiling and landed on Lee. Turns out a wire holding the ceiling fan from shaking broke and was flung onto Lee. Afterwards we just laughed.

“ Having been in law enforcement here for almost 30 years, I had many occasions to run into Lee. I always loved her positive attitude and professional, caring nature with patients. She was direct when she needed to be, and had a fantastic, if somewhat warped, sense of humor that many first responders need in order to do what they do without cracking up. I will miss her, but I am comforted by many great memories! Many lives are richer because she was in them.

“ I would like to share a funny story about my sister. As many of you know Sissy loved to go fishing. On one trip to the bay house we were on the pontoon boat anchored in the cut between the Inter coastal water way and the gulf her fishing line drifted to the back of the boat. Jim Stone reached over the side and gave her line tow big tugs. She jerk her line and said she thought she caught Moby Dick. She soon saw Jim Stone laughing historical and realized what he did and called him everything but Jim Stone. We still laugh about it today.

We the family encourage you to share any story of Lee you may know.
