

Lema Bland Coldwell

July 5, 1936 - November 13, 2013

Lema Coldwell, 77, went home to be with the Lord on November 7, 2013. She was born Lema Bland Crabb, on July 5, 1936, in Conner Texas. On June 13, 1953, Lema married the love of her life, Jasper A. Coldwell, celebrating 60 years together. Early in their marriage, they moved to Houston, where they lived for many years, until relocating to Bryan, where she worked for Sears Roebuck, and Allbritton Engineers. After moving to Huntsville, she worked for TDCJ as an administrative assistant until her retirement. Lema was the heart and soul of her family, always making sure everyone was taken care of, and accounted for. She was truly the "hub" of our family and will be missed beyond measure. Lema is survived by her husband, Jasper Coldwell, son, Sidney Coldwell and wife Lisa of Huntsville, and grandson, Seth Doty of San Marcos. She was preceded in death by her parents; Martha Laura Reid and Arthur "Press" Crabb, brothers; Wade Crabb and Walter Crabb, sisters; Mary Horton, Dorothy Harrist, and Rachel Hoot. Visitation will be Tuesday, Nov. 12, 6-8:00P.M. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home with Graveside Services Wednesday Nov. 13, 11:00A.M. at Farris Cemetery. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com.

“ Dear Coldwell family,
Please accept my deep regrets for your loss. You don't know me but I wanted to share what helped me when I lost my whole family to our greatest enemy death that always brings grief and pain but hope and comfort is found in Jehovah Gods word the Bible at John11:11 and Mark5:39 that they're just asleep and Jesus states at John5:28,29 that we'll see our loved ones again and this helps me get through each day because I miss them so much. I truly hope these scriptures have helped in some way because this is my purpose in sharing this with you. Please know I share your grief.
Sincerely, Gloria Mosley
