“ What a precious lady that I had the pleasure of knowing. I will sure miss seeing her in her spot at church, but rejoice that she has finished her race and made it home. My condolences to the family on your loss. I pray you are at peace and comforted knowing this beautiful soul is in the presence of God.

“ I will miss you dearly my sweet Sister Maddox!! I loved the talks we had and all of the knowledge and wisdom that you shared with me! I remember the day so clearly when I went to visit you at your house and you so graciously talked about your love for Christ and your husband. You told me all about your family each one by name! You also told me to never give up on myself or on others and how God would take care of all things!! So until we meet again forever and always! I will think about you with so much love and respect! May God Bless and Comfort Your Family!! Love Always, Marilyn “ Nonie was my friend and neighbor for over 50 years. She was a gentle and loving christian lady, never missing a chance to share her faith. I know that beautiful smile is much bigger now as she rest in the arms of her Jesus. I will miss her here but will meet her again.
