“ My condolences to the Moore families. I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:29 which states: "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Therefore the Bible promises that there will be a time when we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without wickedness or suffering. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort to you. For more encouraging thoughts on this subject, please visit www.jw.org

“ Dear Kaye, I will never forget the first day of the first grade, when I met you and your mother! It was a treat for both my mother and me to make new friends—for life, as it turned out—and it made facing Mrs. Stewart much easier on that ominous occasion!

Your mother lived a long and wonderful life, and was an example to all of us, of how to live a full and joyful life. May she rest in peace, and may you find comfort in her love.

“ Leona and my dad, John D. Jones, were very fortunate to have found love and companionship in each other in their later years. They both had a zest for life and shared many common interests, including their mutual love of music.

On the Jones side, Leona leaves behind three grandsons--Troy and Kyle Hogue of Raleigh, NC, and Brian Scheffman of Houston; two great-grandsons--Corbin and Carson Scheffman of Houston; and daughter in-laws Gabriella Hogue of Raleigh and Jessica Scheffman of Houston. We will miss her smile and remember her fondly!
