“ Thankyou for the great memories you left all of us. You touched everyone's heart you met. You were always very kind. And a living person. With a great heart. And sole. From all the friends you have on facebook. And classmates. You are one of a kind. A GREAT woman. And friend. You will be missed. I know how much you loved your grand daughter you always posted about her. And of course she loves you you as well. You will be missed. But not forgotten. I love you my friend. God bless you. And your family. In Jesus name. Amen 🙏

“ To the family of Lesa Monette Syphrette,

Lesla, was a spirit of life....finding moving forward through every hill and valley she faced was part of her identity.

I am unsure she ever truly had a shy moment in her very brief life. Her outgoing exterior held a compassionate and loving self which those who were privy to experience it....never will forget Lesa Monette, nor will she be forgotten.
