“ *Leslie Ann Carpenter, took my heart body and soul in just one split second when we first met. The night I came home and found her changed the rest of my life. I fought to bring some kind of justice to what happened to Leslie. I felt in my heart this could be done, boy was I wrong all the court did was slap all of us in the face. This note is for all the people in the world that knew and Loved Leslie Ann Carpenter, if you do one thing in your life, please do not forget her. Matthew L Kiene

“ Dear Jeanne, Don, Chrisitina, Matthew, and Ron, I only heard the news of Leslie yesterday and am so heartbroken beyond belief. I would have flown out there for her memorial had I known. We talked quite a bit about 6 months ago and was planning on visiting next time I came into Houston. Chrisitina, your Mom was my heart. She wa a bridesmaid in my wedding and was a godmother to my Rachael, whose the same age as you. If someone from the family could please call me. “ My prayers go to Leslie's children and family for peace and acceptance that she is in God's care in Heaven. I'd like the family to know that I knew Leslie in High School at San Marcos Academy. My many memories of Leslie can be summed up to say that she was kind, funny, honest, attractive, smart and fun loving. She could never have done anything mean because she wasn't. Leslie had lots of friends and enjoyed life. When I saw her at a class reunion a few years ago, she had all the same good traits. I'm glad to know she has two kids, who surely have her same qualities and carry her spirit. Leslie was a very good person, and that in itself is a legacy. She is missed, and may we all meet again -up there. -Philip

“ We would like to offer any comfort, if that is possible to Kristina, Matthew, Matthew, Ron and the rest of your family. There is never an easy time to lose a loved one. I was looking forward to having your mother as my neighbor. She is always kind and enjoyable to be around and visit with, I remember many days visiting with her at the ball park when all you kids were growing up. I know you feel blessed to have a mom as caring as she was for you both. I know she will be greatly missed. Hopefully we will all meet again with her. I know she will be your guardian angel from above now. May she rest in peace and enjoy her wings as she watches over you from heaven as you move forward with your lives. Please know that we are here for you anytime, so please, if there is anything we could do or help you through this difficult time please call or come over,
With our love to you
