“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of Ray's family and friends during this time of unspeakable loss. I could not make it to Willis for the visitation and funeral, but am with you all in spirit. Ray was a wonderful man, a devoted husband and a loving father. He lived more in 34 years than some people live in a lifetime, and his legacy will live in the hearts of his family and friends forever.

“ Kathleen, I am so sorry for your loss. My heart hurts for you and the girls. I've been there. No, this is not suppose to happen to us. But, you know, we can't question Gods actions. God must have needed him now. I will pray for ya'll and the whole family. There are so many emotions at this time of sorrow. God is so Great that he will take care of all of you. God Bless all of you. Renee's mom.

“ Dear Kathleen and Family: I am extremely sorry for the loss of your beloved. He was inspiring, smart, and happy. Lewis was a joy to be around and hard working. He always had a good thing to say and loved his family so. What a great and wonderful person... we lost someone very special and good. It was a blessing to know him, and I thank God for the chance to work with and learn from him. He is greatly missed and will be remembered fondly. You have my deep sympathy and on-going prayers during your difficult time. Sincerely, Sylvia Ireland

“ Please know that not a moment has gone by that our hearts have not ached for you and your families' loss. We feel so helpless in understanding the depth of your loss and knowing that it is impossible to take any of your pain away. Whatever you need -be it now, a week, or a year from now- just know we are here, your friends that look up to you and care for you will always be here waiting to help and hoping their is comfort in knowing we are just around the corner and just a phone call away.

My deepest sympathies,

Sylvia Robertson

“Coo,

We are praying for you and your family. Ray-Ray's light will always shine in our memories.

There are no words that will grant the peace this passing will require. Ray-Ray is so young; just a baby, really. It never gets easier. A parent should never have to bury his child and a big brother should always have the joy of his little brother.

"The Dance", which played at my cousin, Mike Guinn's, memorial, has brought me comfort through the passing the years, despite of my tears.

*"Looking back on the memory of
The dance we shared 'neath the stars alone
For a moment all the world was right
How could I have known that you'd ever say goodbye*

*Holding you I held everything
For a moment wasn't I a king
But if I'd only known how the king would fall
Hey who's to say you know I might have chanced it all*

*And now I'm glad I didn't know
The way it all would end the way it all would go
Our lives are better left to chance I could have missed the pain
But I'd of had to miss the dance*

*Yes my life is better left to chance
I could have missed the pain but I'd of had to miss the dance "*

God's Grace be with you all.
