“ I was sorry to hear Linda Joyce passed away. I tried to find out information to attend the funeral but was told by Aunt Grave there was no service, and we were not wanted. I have fond memories of her when I was young and she lived with us- Daddy and her mother Virginia Louise Kennon Akin.

I send my wishes of condolences out to Dottie and her children. I am sorry we did not get to know each other better growing up.

“ Sharon and Bubba, We will miss Linda and her great sense of humor, among other things that made her dear to all of us. But you know she is having a time now with her "cream puff"- sorry--this was a private joke with us. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. We all love you.

“ It truly makes me sad that I won't ever get to gab with linnie again. God bless her. She will always be remembered fondly be me. Her and mam maw are probably running the streets of heaven together as we speak. Fore heavens sake I hope there aren't any green station-wagons up there. Sorry, for the comic relief I loved her as an aunt and have many fond memories, Vicci Shook
