

Linda Louise (Spikes) Armstrong

June 7, 1954 - May 30, 2025

Linda Louise (Spikes) Armstrong of Willis, Texas passed away peacefully on Friday May 30, 2025. Linda was born in Anderson, Texas on June 7, 1954. Linda was preceded in death by her parents Thomas Jefferson Spikes and Albina Gertrude Spikes, and her brother Johnnie Thomas Spikes. Linda is survived by her children Pamela Muggli (Joe) and Phillip Pasket Jr (Adrienne), along with four grandchildren who were the light of her life, Clay, Brendan, Graycen, and Phillip Michael (little man). She is also survived by her brother, Tommy Spikes (Yvonne). Linda collected people like some people collected knick knacks; she had so many special people in her life. She had a very strong bond with Whitney Terry and husband Derrance (D.D) along with their children, Everly, Deklan, and Rowyn. Rowyn loves her MawMaw and she adored Rowyn from the day she was born. She loved the "daycare babies" like they were her own grandbabies. She leaves behind many relatives and friends. A few friends that were as special to her as family include Herman Snoe, Diane Murphy, and Able Bravo. Linda enjoyed writing recipes, fishing, and enjoying her grandchildren.

A Visitation and Celebration of Linda's life will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Willis, Texas on Thursday, June 5, 2025. The visitation will begin at 1pm, Celebration/Service at 2pm, and graveside at 3pm.

Pallbearers are Derrance (D.D) Terry, Chris Pasket, Willy Everitt, Justin Nichols, Kevin Berger, and son, Phillip Pasket Jr.
