“ Linda Joyce & I grew up as next door neighbors in Galena Park on 15th Street. She's always been a very sweet & loving person. One day not long ago I was coming out of Lowes & almost to my car.....a car whipped into a parking space by my car & I heard someone scream Lynda Jean. I turned around & it was Linda Joyce trying to jump out of her car. It had been a while since we had seen each other.....she gave me a great big bear hug. No matter how old we were.....we always called each other by our first & second name. So.....Linda Joyce.....this is Lynda Jean saying I'll miss you my sweet GP friend. My prayers & love go out to Ellie.....Donnie.....Cindy.....Angie.....Sonny & all of the family. R.I.P. neighbor.

“ Linda was a dear friend. We met in 1999 at Mayer, Brown & Platt, and remained good friends. We had much in common - legal secretaries, 2 daughters, Linda's birthday day was the same as my oldest daughter, and a few days after mine. If I had had a big sister, I'd have wanted her to be Linda. Through the years, she'd frequently drive downtown and pick me up for lunch. I hate going to the mall and Linda was the only one I'd go with - she made shopping enjoyable! She was kind, caring and witty. My heart is broken at her loss, but I know she's at peace and the angels are laughing at her wit. Rest In Peace, my dear friend. My continued prayers for her family.
