“ Lona was a wonderful grandmother to me. I had so many fond memories of our Saturday shopping trips to what was the first shopping mall on I-45. Northline Mall. My favorite time was sitting at the Woolworth lunch counter as we had lunch consisting of 1 slice of pizza and a fountain coke. She reallt was alot if fun when I was younger. At 100 yrs old she had a very long and full life. I will miss you grandmother love you always. Doreen...
