“ Lorean was my longtime neighbor and friend.
When not tending to her beautiful garden, she was baking goodies for her family, or meeting with her church members.

She was an excellent conversationalist and always up on current events.

Although tiny in stature, Lorean was strong in her convictions and always appreciated her no nonsense advice.

I will never forget her and her selfless ways.

Prayers for Joyce, Amy, and family.

So sorry Joyce. Memories too numerous to mention..Club Lake, State Fair & many more. Our parents have probably already talked St. Peter into a 42 game.
