“ Lory "Ludy Pop" Archer

You know we love you, sweet lil angel that you are. We miss you everyday. I am so sorry about the way your family feels about us but I know it must be devistating to lose a child and easy to blame others for an unfortunade incident. We know you have your wings and your waiting for us all to join you at the right time. And I thank you for watching over John as you are. He would do the same for you. I know you loved him as he still loves you with all his heart. We truly felt like you were apart of our family and were looking forward to you being our daughter-in-law one day. For some reason, God needed you and I know you will do a wonderful job for him!! We love you and think of you everyday and we will meet again, even John.. His maker is the same of all of ours, he just wishes he could have been with you that night because he would have had an argument with God about it not being your time. Your in our thoughts always!

With love,

“ Lory, I was with your mother the day you were born and know that was one of the most happiest days of her life, finally getting her baby daughter. You brought such joy everyday to everyone that came in contact with you and especially your family. We were all better off for having known and loved you and you will be terribly, terribly missed. The only thing that brings us any comfort at all is knowing that you have Gen, Johnny, Daniel, your great grandparents, and your great Aunt Chris and Uncle Ray all around you now and that, hopefully, we will all see you again someday. Dorothy, please be strong for the rest of your family that still need you so much. Lory will be deeply missed for as long as we live. I love you all very much.

“ LORY, FOR 18 YEARS, WE HAVE SHARED THE SAME BIRTHDAY- AND FOREVER, BETWEEN US, IT WILL ALWAYS BE THAT WAY.

WE'RE TWO COUSINS, INTERTWINED, BY THE SAME DAY OF BIRTH- ONLY DIFFERENCE NOW, IS THAT I'LL HAVE TO MAKE THAT CALL LONG DISTANCE, UP TO HEAVEN, DOWN FROM EARTH.

YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN MY FAVORITE GIRL COUSIN, AND I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU- I WILL THINK OF YOU OFTEN, AND I WILL SURELY MISS YOU TOO.

I REMEMBER THE DAY YOU WERE BORN, IT MADE ME GLAD- AND NOW THAT YOU'RE NO LONGER HERE, IT MAKES ME SAD.

BUT I KNOW THAT GEN, AND GRANNY, AND SO MANY OTHERS ARE GLAD TO SEE YOU- GIVE THEM A HUG FOR ME, FOR I MISS ALL OF THEM TOO.

LOVE.....
YOUR COUSIN,

“ I wish to thank everyone that shared these wonderful memories and feelings about my daughter Lory...I have so many memories that I hold precious in my mind and soul...I gave up my stingy-ness years ago...when I allowed her to be her...Lory, grew and became a wonderful person that you all know...that will never-ever be replaced...Yesterday, I found myself crying for my stiny-ness again...cause, I don't won't to let her go...I would like to keep her here with me and all the people she loved...I am not going to say God took my daughters life..But say; God was an innocent by-stander and ready take her to a better place...and that he did!....I am just happy that an angel came into my life as well as yours..... “ Not just a cousin, but a special girl-
Who brought much happiness in the world.

LORY

One who will be missed and loved for all time-
One who cannot be summed up in one simple rhyme.

We know that you are in pain, and just remember that we love you-

Lory, is blessed to have had a mother,(as you are like your own mother, Gen), that is so giving in everything that you do.

“ In all my life I have never met anyone quite like Lory. Her constant optimism, charm and liveliness brightened the lives of everyone she met. In her work she was without par, here at Dunrich Holding Co. she was the youngest Office Manager in the company, and was commended for her excellent work on an almost daily basis. Words can not express the grief I feel, and I wish I could ease the suffering of her loving family. May we all remember the beauty she brought to our lives, and in that memory she will live forever. God bless you Lory, may he welcome you home to Heaven in all glory, where someday, God willing, we shall meet again.

“ Lori was such a beautiful person, and so young. She had so much to give to the world, but God has called her home, we all will miss her. My heart goes out to the parents and brothers, I wish I could ease their pain. Lori is in a better place, she is now with all her grandparents and Uncles, I know she has been welcome with open arms and we look forward to the day when we will meet again.

“ Though I'm sure it has been said before, Lory truly is in a better place now. I'm so sorry for her family's loss. She's blessed everyone's lives she's come in contact with, and we are all so lucky to have known her and had her in our family. My family will continue to pray for her parents and siblings as I know it must be hard what they are going through at this very moment. We Love ALL of You!!
