“ My heart is breaking my dear brother. You were my life. I can't imagine my life without you anymore. All the hard years and pain that you suffered are over now. You were the most toughest, strongest man I have ever know, yet you were the most soft hearted, and kindest person also. Even thru the roughest times we endured, I have never ever doubted your love for me! I never for one second gave up on you and my love only grew stonger for you each day of your life and will continue even deeper and stronger. Until we meet again my precious brother. I love you Louie!
