“ I have known Louise for over 25 years, and over time she became my adopted mom.
She always had a warm welcoming smile and a quick wit to go with it. Her bravery in dealing with the challenges in her later life is a fine example for us all to learn from. I know she will be missed.
Joe, Baker, Jean and families, please accept my deepest sympathy on your loss.

“ I met Louise a year ago (the first time that my mother had a stay at Ella Smither). She quickly became one of my favorite girls to chat with when I came to visit. If she didn't show up, I went looking for her! I will miss her sweet smile but mostly that twinkle in her eyes when she was teasing and cutting up with everyone around her! Momma and I both loved her and considered her a friend.
